WHO WE ARE

We are a Specialized Investigative Services agency. We provide our clients with confidential and discreet investigations, to include background checks, tenant screening, judgment recovery services, and more.

All of our services are provided within the legal justice system. We do not break laws to complete an assignment. Before we can conduct an investigation or do any research for a client., we must first ascertain legal and permissible cause for us to begin any legal work or provide investigative services. Any and all information our clients reveal to us remains strictly in confidence. We do not share information with anyone except for law enforcement authorities who provide legal right to access such information.

This brochure is only a summary of all that we offer and if there is a service you require and do not see It listed, please feel free to ask. Please visit our website for more detailed information;

INVESTIGATIVE SERVICES

We investigate a wide range of different circumstances and situations. We investigate insurance claims for personal injury that are the result of an accident or work related in nature. We also provide security analysis for large department stores, manufacturing firms, and even small business owners, who may be experiencing theft, or inventory control issues.

We do not spy on people for personal gain, we do not find lost loves, and we do not sell our information to anyone for any reason.

JUDGMENT RECOVERY SERVICES

We are a company dedicated to the enforcement of judicial judgments. We purchase your judgment, in its entirety, usually on a 'future pay' basis, without application fees or up-front costs of any kind. We advance all the costs and expenses incurred in locating the judgment debtor and enforcing the judgment. We make our money only from the judgment debtor, at no direct cost to you.

The fact is - almost 80% of all judgments are never recovered. Your judgment may have been awarded by the court but enforcement is your responsibility. We can succeed when you can't!

We have the resources, expertise, and determination to enforce the judgment you worked so hard to get. We will conduct a thorough investigation to uncover any assets or sources of income, and take whatever steps are necessary to legally seize them!

If you have a valid court awarded judgment of $1,500 or more, we will use every method at our disposal to recover the full amount of the unpaid judgment plus any interest that the judgment has accrued since it was issued. We will track the judgment debtor down even if he or she has moved to another state. We have access to both private and public databases that allows us to 'skip-trace' the debtor and to locate any assets that he or she may have. As allowed by law, we will garnish wages, attach bank accounts, and seize assets as necessary. If possible, we will try to do so without any notification or confrontation. In short, we will enforce the judgment that was legally and rightfully awarded to you by the courts!
